GUIDELINES

for Teaching a Class

We love to host creative makers of all types of crafts and arts. We strive to support the local community of women and men who are at home makers and creators.

HOW CAN I TEACH A CLASS?

Room and Facilities

5 large tables are available and we can comfortably seat 22 but can go up to 28 depending on the activity. If you don't need specific table space we have had parties for 50 people. One restroom.

You will be responsible for clean up and removal of trash/recycling in bins provided. All tables/countertops must be cleared

The room must be as you found it. Ample car parking is available. We have a full kitchen for use.

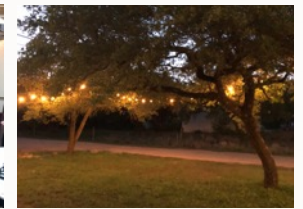

Your guests should be advised that the animals can be looked at but not touched, if they do happen to come in contact they should wash hands. If they are interested in the horses/mules please contact us to arrange a special talk from the stables staff.

EITHER - PER HOUR RATE $150

Call or email and book per the hour. We accept a minimum of 1 hour booking. Over 3 hours would be $100 per additional hour. You would be responsible for advertising and booking your own guests. The room can be laid out as per your requirements. Outdoor space is available at the front.

5 Indoor large tables

Outdoor front yard

OR - 30% OF TICKET SALES

Arrange your event with our staff, we will create a ticket online in our website and your customers can book a space online for the class. You will provide all the materials and will be responsible for advertising but we will put the event on our Calendar and Facebook Page. We will pay you 70% of ticket sales. The room can be laid out as per your requirements. Outdoor space is available
